

Instructions for Bidding

Due to the President's declaration of a national emergency to combat Covid19 - GSA has implemented the following temporary change as to how Bid Deposits will be collected for the Pacific Rim Zone Aircraft Sales.

A $100,000 dollar bid deposit is required for gaining access to bid on the 2003 Cessna Citation 560, Tail No. 557PG, Serial No. 560-0557 offered on Invitation for Bid 91QSCI-21-343, item 501. Bidders must submit a copy of their cashier's check guaranteeing funds for at least 60 days payable to GSA and email it to: shirley.tarkington@gsa.gov by Friday, September 3, 2021 3:00pm PDT.

All bidders MUST include their name, on-line username (this is not your email address), telephone number and e-mail address for gaining access to bid. If we do not receive this information, the bid de posit will NOT be accepted and access to bid will not be considered. Once the bidder's deposit is received and verified, bidding authorization will be granted to the username given and an e-mail confirmation will be sent to the email address registered on gsaauctions.gov.

Physical Inspection may be coordinated by contacting Earl Mcewen at (702) 303-9788 or ejmcewen@fbi.gov as well as any additional aircraft inquiries.

Bid deposits for prospective bidders who are not successful will have their bid deposits immediately released upon the sale closing.

RESERVE PRICE GUIDELINES

Reserve prices are, in most cases not made public knowledge. If we publish the "reserve" we may not accept any amount less, (i.e.) if we offer an item and the reserve is $100,000.00 and we publish that fact, we cannot sell it for any amount less. However, if we offer that same item and the "unpublished" reserve is still $100,000.00 and we have bids close, (i.e.) $97,500.00 or even $89,500.00 then we can confer with the owning agency and make a decision to accept or reject the offer(s). So, by not publishing the "reserve" the Government has the latitude to make an award at a lesser price than the reserve if we choose.

Thank you for your interest in the GSAAuctions program and we look forward to your continued participation.
